Maryland Center for History and Culture

610 Park Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21201

12:00pm - Meet Cybele Moon, CSA Mid-Atlantic Coordinator for Programs and Events, in the Maryland Center for History and Culture lobby for entry tickets.

12:30pm - Join the group on a curator-led walkthrough of the Claire/McCardle exhibit and a behind the scenes experience of the Barbara P. Katz Fashion Archives.

2:30pm - tour the museum on your own.

4:00pm - join the group for a bite and/ or drinks at the Mount Vernon Marketplace, 520 Park Ave, Baltimore, MD 21201

Parking: Parking at the Maryland Center for History and Culture is free on a first come, first served basis. The parking lot entrance is located off Monument Street, between North Howard Street and Park Avenue. Street parking is also available in the surrounding neighborhood and additional parking is available at the Franklin Garage just a few minutes' walk from our main entrance.

Public transportation: We are conveniently located adjacent to the Light Rail Centre Street stop, and along the free Charm City Circulator Purple Route.

Walking Directions: We are close to many other museums and attractions in the Mount Vernon neighborhood. If you are walking, please use the main visitor entrance located at 610 Park Avenue between West Monument Street and Centre Street, which is half a block from the Mount Vernon Marketplace and two blocks from the Washington Monument.
